REMARKS OF
HON. P. C. SHANNON.

The following eloquent remarks were made by Hon. P. C. SHANNON, in the late Democratic Convention at Harrisburg, upon a motion to adjourn:

Mr. President:—Not correctly understanding the question before the Convention, I beg leave to ask whether it is debateable? [The President stated the motion and the amendment thereto; and added that the latter was, in his view, the subject of remark.]

"Well sir," continued the delegate from Allegheny "I may be permitted to say, with all respect, that I am opposed to both propositions: and before I close, shall offer an amendment.—The Convention has settled the question of contested seats, and has appointed, in a happy and highly proper manner, its highest and most important committee—that on resolutions.—When the gentleman from Bedford [Mr. Cessna,] made the motion to leave the selection of this committee to the delegates from each senatorial district, it met my utmost approbation; because I fancied I saw in it not merely honorable adjustment, but also a bright augury of a lasting truce between the two sections which have of late divided the Democratic party of this State. And, sir my most ardent anticipations as to the wisdom of the plan, have been more than realized in the announcement of the committee. Permit me to add, that I recognized upon it gentlemen who are statesmen and patriots, in the truest sense of those terms; gentlemen of large experience, cultivated intellect and of unfaltering moral courage—who are an honor to our party and to our commonwealth. [Great cheering.]

I suppose, sir, it migt not be considered rash for me to declare, in advance of their action, whatever that action may be, that, for one, I am now almost prepared to leave the destinies of my party to their cool reflection and sage counsel. Still, it cannot be denied that, looking over the face of the whole country, if we are not in the midst of revolution, yet one is awfully and most threatningly impending over us. Our hearts, with the richest treasury of their hopes, would fain palliate or disguise the portentous omens of the times; but alas, the stubborn reality—like the finger of Time on the brow of Age—is rapidly augmenting; whilst stupified thought, awaking to the truth, totters and reels at the contemplation.

Sir, is there not hot and angry dissension throughout the land? Are not the storm clouds gathering over the political sky of the fairest Republic that the sun of heaven ever shone upon? Is there not the spirit of evil riding on the northern blast; whilst the southern gales, which were wont to be soft, soothing and aromatic, come laden with words of wrath, woe and dismemberment? Is not one portion of the Union arrayed against the other—morally and intellectually, if not physically? Alas, alas, it is too true! The American Union is now torn, threatened and bleeding. The civilized world, beyond the seas, looks upon us with fear and amazement. They look at our statistics, and see that the year of the census displaying our greatest prosperity, is also the year of secession and dissolution. They ask, Can this thing be? They inquire, Can a nation whose growth and prosperity have been so almost fabulous; whose system professes to be based upon the capacity of man for self government; whose power has unlocked the ports of the most distant nations; whose influence is felt in every nation of the Christion world; can such a Republic, in the year of its greatest glory and renown, be so false to itself, so blind, so mad, as to risk all the choicest blessings of earth, in pursuit of miserable abstractions, and in defense of false points of honor?

Whilst Italy the land of beauty and verdure—led by our example and inspired by our idea, has been wading through rivers of blood to establish the principle and practice of unity, even under monarchical rule—we, on the other hand, are ignobly, wickedly and madly engaged in scattering to the four winds of heaven the ever lustrous, the immortal motto of our glorious sires—"E pluribus unum."

Is such to be the fate of our youthful Republic, which, a few short months ago, stood blooming and bright, like some celestial creation, with one foot silver tipt, resting on the shores of the Atlantic, and the other, golden sandaled, on the margin of the Pacific; with one hand, Ceres, like, scattering richest bounties over the valleys of the North, and with the other sowing the prolific seeds of plenty and wealth over the lowlands of the sunny South; standing fair and beauteous, the admiration of the world with an equal smile and care over all sections, knowing no North, no South, no East, no West, but casting, like the dews of heaven, equal favor upon all. In the mysterious decrees of Providence, is such a fate reserved for this best of all the governmental fabrics of the earth? Are we even now tottering, and must we fall? No, no, a thousand times no! In the vocabulary of American youth, imprinted upon our hearts at our mothers' knees and under our fathers' teachings; in the lexicon read and studied by the bivouac fires of the Revolution; illuminated, far more gorgeously than any princely or knightly missal of old, by the blood that flowed from Bunker Hill to Yorktown in the great American lexicon which God has thus framed, illuminated and consecrated, there is, there never can be such a foul word as disunion! It must be, sir, that the mutterings we hear are merely fanciful; that it is but a phantom that stalks before our disordered vision.

My convictions are, and so I have expressed myself, that much must the Republican party, inevitably answer for before the court of Heaven and the bar of the civilized world—for its birth found us in peace and fraternity, whilst the few years of its existence have brought us, in some way or other, to the verge of destruction, to the edge of the yawning abyss which swallows hope, concord, peace and union.—Yet heavier than the responsibility of a mere party, the masses of which, I freely admit, are swayed by well meant impulses, is, and ever must be, that of the leaders of that sectional organization. Cunning, golden-tongued and aspiring, they busied themselves in teaching phrases to the great Northern heart, which reduced to logical elements, were found to contain matter at war with the hitherto sacred principles of the equality of the States, and the rights of the people thereof in the common territories of the goverment.

To re-assert these cardinal doctrines; to face the common danger, to counsel together for the welfare of our country, to pour oil upon the troubled waters, by just compromises and concessions; these, and kindred ideas, are the objects for which we are assembled, and to their calm but earnest consideration we should bend all the faculties of our heads, and all the sympathies of our hearts. For ourselves, we should be fraternal and united, so that our example may operate beneficially in other sections of the confederacy; and as our assemblage has been appropriately opened with prayer and benediction, let our hearts respond to the solemn invocation.

But it has been said, that, as the committee is not ready to report, and there is, therefore, no formal business before the Convention, we should postpone all further action until to-morrow. Many of us have come from the most distant parts of the State, with earnest desire to accomplish what we can in this good work.

Upon looking around over the nearly four hundred delegates of which this body is composed, I recognize many venerable gentlemen, whose gray hairs give additional lustre to their services and positions—gentlemen who give increased evidence of their patriotism by their attendance here; I refer to Lewis and Randall, of Philadelphia; to Nevin and Sanderson, of Lancaster; to Clarke of Indiana, and others. What so becoming, sir, on the eve of the anniversary of the birth of Washington, and amid the perils which seem to environ the nation, over whose cradle he watched so fondly—what so fit as to listen to their voices, and to hearken to their counsels. For myself, I desire that they shall be heard; and I imagine it is not taking upon myself too much to declare, that all the young men of the Convention would gladly listen to them till the gray of dawn. Nor can we be occupied in a better manner. For as in the decrees of the Great Master of the vineyard, the too great exuberance and fecundity of May are oftentimes checked and retarded, for beneficient ends, by chilling winds and white frosts; so, among mankind, it has been found that the eagerness, impetuosity and enthusiasm of youth are best curbed and tempered by the cool words of wisdom that drop from the lips of hoary age. Like Rasselas, the youth of this nation seem to think that they have lived too long in the happy valley of peace, delight and unity; and they ardently sigh, like he did, for ampler regions, wider scope and freer license; it is well that in their foolish wanderings in pursuit of vague delusions and untried experiments, the venerable Imlacs of the land should follow their footsteps, and lure them back to the peace, liberty and contentment they are leaving behind.

Here, in the capital of the commonwealth, this very evening you hear the strains of martial music, the clangor of the trumpet and the tread of armed men; congregating, it is true, for no warlike object, but preparing to welcome, with to-morrow's sun, the coming of the great chief of the opposite party, who is also the President elect of the nation. They are preparing to swell the pageant and to give eclat to the ovation to Abraham Lincoln. It is not in my heart to find fault with all this; on the contrary, I think it is due from his party, as a compliment to the wonderful success of the man, and as an acknowledgement of the grandeur of the station he is about to occupy. For although the Presidency, as matters now stand, is no bed of roses—is filled with the thorns of care, and canopied with a worse dread than the sword of Damocles; yet its possession is still the emblem of national respect, as well as the sceptre of national power.

But when, to-morrow, the Governor of this State shall greet, with tones of welcome, the advent of the distinguished stranger, I wish he would say to him, that the people of Pennsylvania want no civil war; that they look upon it with horror; that they consider it the worst curse which could befall a Christian government. I wish he would counsel him to moderation, to patience, to wisdom; above all, to a just sense of the equal constitutional rights of the citizens of every State in whatever thing is guaranteed to them. Let him say, that if there have been anger, rashness and precipitancy in the cotton States, it will be a bad thing to follow such an example; that, at all events, error is best cured by persuasion, kindness and forbearance; and that it becomes him to inquire whether there are, or are not, causes for the irritation so generally prevailing in the southern mind. Let him tell Abraham Lincoln to drop the partisan and become the patriot; for that, if he does not there are yet left in old Pennsylvania, 230,000 Democratic freemen, who will closely scrutinize and critically weigh every act of his administration; who will not consent to war in any unrighteous cause; who demand a redress of all real grievances in whatever section, and who declare that every possible measure of conciliation, which honor can allow, must be first fully exhausted, before they can even think of destroying the American Union in the fiendish way of fratricidal war.

Let Governor Curtin admonish Mr. Lincoln to beware of the spirit of precipitancy which he condemns in others; that internal force is not suited to the genius of our people, nor is it an element of our organization. In Heaven's name, and for holy purposes, let him tell him to beware! Let him say in the language of the poet—

"Lochiel, Lochiel! beware of the day
When the lowlands shall meet thee in battle array!
For a field of the dead rushes red on my sight,
And the clans of Culloden are scatter'd in flight."

THE KANSAS SUFFERERS.—One of the relief Committee Rascals exposed by a Republican Brother.—We find the following expose in the Doniphan county (Kansas) Whitecloud Chief, (Rep.) It shows how a Republican philanthropist disposes of donations sent to suffering Kansas:

Wolf River Township,
Doniphan County, March 9.

Dear Sir;—Your letter of the 5th inst., making inquiry with regard to certain goods and money sent to Mr. James Underwood, of this place, in care of Samuel C. Pomeroy, and other matters has been received. I will endeavor to give you a correct statement of the facts as clearly as possible.

About the 9th of January last, there were sent to Mr. Underwood, in care of General Pomeroy, from Rockville Station, in the State of Indiana, for distribution to the people of this township, the following described goods, to wit: One hundred and ten barrels of flour, ninety bushels of wheat, a still greater proportion of corn meal, $250 in clothing, valued, and six boxes of clothing not valued. There was also sent, at the same time, from the same place to Pomeroy, a sum of money, of which I now forget the exact amount, near $300, to pay freight on these goods. The Chairman of the Comittee at Rockville wrote to Mr. Underwood at the same time sending the goods, informing him of the facts. About the 20th of January, Mr. U., accompanied by myself, went to Atchison, for the purpose of procuring the goods, and bringing them out here. When we asked General Pomeroy concerning the goods, he said that there had never been any shipment whatever to him from Rockville. Mr. Underwood remarked that there must be some mistake, as he had then in his possession a letter from the Chairman of the Committee at Rockville, stating that the goods had been sent some time, and demanded to see Pomeroy's books.

At first the General refused to allow the books to be seen, and said he would not do so until he was shown the letter from Rockville. I suppose Mr. U., felt some delicacy with regard to showing the letter, as it contained some allusions to the General of a not very highly flattering character; but at length both letter and books were produced, and it was found by the books that the goods had been sent and received as the letter described. Pomeroy then said that the goods had not been shipped to Mr. Underwood, and that at all events they had already been distributed, and that he could get none of them. The General then left the office, leaving us to the gentlemanly attention of one of his clerks, Mr. Herricks of this county, from whom we received no satisfaction, but abuse. Mr. Underwood has never yet received any of his goods, and I do not think it probable he ever will.

With regard to the way in which acounts are kept at the general relief depot, it is a little curious. The system is one of double entry. It is a very simple plan, but very ingenious.—The teamsters, as you doubtless know, receive a certain compensation for hauling each load, when they choose to take it—say from $5 to $20, according to distance. Well, this is the way they are paid: they sign a receipt on the books at Pomeroy's office, as for so much money received for hauling, and thereupon receive an order on the "old clothes depot" for the same amount of clothing. When they arrive at the clothing depot, they are compelled to take old clothes at a remarkably stiff price, considering they are sent as a charity; and then another entry is made upon the book, of clothes distributed. Don't you see how readily the money will be accounted for, by paying off teamsters at the rate of from one hundred to two hundred and fifty per day, and at from $5 to $20 per head in old clothes?

Yours truly,
GEO. H. ROBB,
Sec'y. of Wolf River Tp. Relief Com.

A PIG JOKE.—We had a hearty laugh the other day, at hearing a friend tell of a man who was attempting to put a yoke on a pig.—He had cornered grunter in a room having a glazed window, when the animal, believing they were preparing to infringe upon its full freedom, went with a single bound through the window.

"Drat it," said the old man, looking after him a moment, "I've got your dimensions anyhow—seven by nine exactly!"

☞"Mr Brown, you said the defendant was honest and intelligent. What makes you think so—are you well acquainted with the gentleman?"

"No sir, I never seen him."

"Why then do you come to such a conclusion?"

"Cause he takes ten newspapers, and pays for them in advance!"

ORIGIN OF THE GYPSIES.—The Gypsies are not Egyptians, as is commonly supposed, but are of the lowest class of Indians among the estates of Hindostan, commonly called Pariars, or in Hindostan, Sundars. They are found in Persia, Turkey, Russia, Hungary, and most of the continental nations, amounting to more than seven hundred thousand; they all speak one language, differing only in a small degree from each other, as the provincial accents of a kingdom may differ, and this language is nearly the same—the Hindostanee. The emigration of this people from their own country is attributed to the war of Timour Beg, (408,) at which period their arrival in Europe is confirmed by historical authorities. So cruel was the conqueror, that one hundred thousand, who surrendered as slaves, were put to death; in consequence of which, a universal panic seized the inhabitants, and they fled in all directions, the Sundars gradually finding their way into Europe. The features of the Gypsies plainly showed their eastern origin; but they had so well contrived to dupe the European inhabitants that, till the advancement of Oriental literature, their country could never be clearly traced. In England, where they arrived in the time of Henry VIII, they met the taste of the vulgar by pretended skill in astrology, and the art of palmistry, bringing with them their native tricks of juggling. That the Gypsies are of the race mentioned, can scarcely be doubted, when we put all the reasons together for establishing the theory. The date of the scattering of the Indian tribes by Timour Beg agrees with that of their emigration to Europe; their language accords with that of Hindostanee; their persons strongly resemble the people of that country—so much so, that the troops of Hindostan struck the British officers with surprise when they joined their armies, as so nearly resembling these people; and their customs and mode of life in every respect are perfectly in accordance with those of the Sundars; both are filthy and disgusting in their habits; both are given to steal; both dislike to communicate their language to strangers; they are remarkably fond of horses; they prefer food killed by disease; they have similar dances; they are alike wanderers, and are averse to civilized life; they equally dislike agricultural pursuits, and practice music, or travel about with their tinker's tools, ready to work at every door; their marriage customs are similar. The belief that the Gypsies were Egyptians arose from the report circulated by the first of them, that they were pilgrims from Egypt. The Gypsies have no particular religion, all professedly conforming to that of the countries where they dwell, but being for the most part, destitute of faith.

WHO SENT THEM.—Old mother Benner was pious but poor. In the midst of her extreme want, her trust and confidence was put in God.

It was late one chilly night in the autumn of the year, when two rather wild young men were passing her cottage on their way home. One of them had under his arm some loaves of bread which he had purchased at the village store. A faint light glimmered from Mother Benner's casement. Said the one who had the loaves to his companion:

"Let us have some fun with the old woman?"

"Agreed," said the other.

They approached the house, and peeping into the window, saw the old woman upon her knees by the hearth, where a few embers were mouldring in the ashes. She was engaged in prayer. They listened and heard her offering an honest petition for bread. She was utterly destitute of bread.

In furtherance of their fun, one of them with the loaves climbed softly up the roof of the cottage and dropped one loaf after the other down the chimney. As the bread rolled down on the hearth, they caught the lady's eye, and in the fullness of her heart she exclaimed:

"Thank the Lord; bless the Lord for his bounty."

"But the Lord didn't send them," shouted a voice from the chimney.

"Yes he did." said she, undauntedly; "the Lord sent them, and the Devil brought them."

☞The English travelers complain that they are so hurried in our hotels and so little in our stage coaches. An Irish traveller took a different view of the case. Honest Pat came in at one o'clock and was called up in half an hour.

"And what will ye charge for the bit of a lodging?"

"Twenty-five cents," was the reply

"An' sure it was kind of ye to call me so airly; if I'd slept till morning, I'd not had the money to pay the bill."

WOODEN NUTMEGS OUTDONE.—There is a Parisian dandy, who, we think, rather outdoes Connecticut. C——— had at his residence a complete costume of a groom. When offering an attention to one of the fair sex, he used to say, "Permit me to send you a boquet by my black servant." He then repaired to his garret took out his blacking bottle, polished his face and hands, put on his livery, and knocked at the lady's door. "Here," he said, "are some flowers, sent by my master to madame." He had spent the last five francs in the purchase.—Madame was so delighted with the present, that she presented a louis to the bearer. That is a clear pocketing of three dollars, and a lady favor into the bargain.

☞The editor of the Belfast Star, (Rep.) says he is afraid "Mr. Lincoln lacks backbone." For the Lord's sake, how long a backbone do you wish a man to have?

☞A raw Irishman, on his first sight of a locomotive, declared that it was the devil.—"No." said his companion, "it's a stameboat hunting for wather."

CALL AND SETTLE.

We are compelled to call upon all persons indebted to us, to make payment as soon as they conveniently can. Our necessities are urgent and we must have money. We shall confidently expec' all our friends who may be in attendance at the coming Court, to pay up their arrearages. We hope this appeal will not be in vain.

CIVIL WAR.

The so-called "peace policy" of the Lincoln Administration has all at once been turned into one of blood and horror. As the white and placid moon when storms are gathering in the firmament, sometimes changes her wonted pallor to a lurid red, so the fickle "powers that be," have suddenly yielded up their professed desire for peace and are now engaged in the wicked and desperate attempt to precipitate upon the country a conflict, unnatural and unnecessary, brutal and horrible, and calculated to bring destruction, famine and desolation to the hearth-stone of every American family. It is now almost certain that the pretence of peace on the part of Lincoln, was a mere ruse to gain time for preparation for war; to lull the seceded states into security, and bring about the adjournment of the Conventions in the Border Slave States without any definite result. This hypocritic policy, Mr. Lincoln, doubtless, imagined, would not be discovered by the Southern people until too late to resist its consummation. How sadly, how lamentably he has erred, he will learn when Maryland, Virginia and the remainder of those slave states which have so firmly and nobly stood by the Union, shall have joined hands and shouldered muskets with their brothers of the Southern Confederacy. Too late will he then discover that a bold and straight-forward course, an open and unconcealed front, even though it had been warlike, would have been far better for the broken and distracted nation over whose destinies he presides. Too late also, may he recognize the fact that the adoption by his Administration of some one of the numerous plans suggested for a pacific adjustment of the Southern difficulties, would have been ineffably preferable to the barbarous wager of battle to which he has chosen to resort. When he shall behold his country torn and bleeding, the prey of civil feuds excited and precipitated by his own immediate agency; when the cruel ferocity of the liberated slave shall bring fire and rapine to the homes of the North, as well as to the plantations of the South; when this lovely land, ere while an Eden of love and peace, shall have been turned into a very hell of hate and strife; Mr. Lincoln and his partizans may learn to pray that the curse placed upon their political sins may be removed. Perhaps, says one, civil war will not bring all this. Friend, it has never brought less. Do you remember Greece? Rome? York and Lancaster? The French Revolution? Do you remember the disasters that resulted to mother England when she attempted to coerce our fathers, her children?

But how much better would it have been if Mr. Lincoln had made the Crittenden Compromise, or even the Peace Conference Plan, a measure of his Administration. The Slavery question would have been settled. No civil strife would have ensued. The adoption of the Crittenden plan, would have brought back into the Union all of the seceded States, for their President, Jefferson Davis, their Vice President, Mr. Stephens, and even Mr. Toombs, expressed themselves satisfied with that measure if acceded to by the "Republicans."—When this sectional conflict shall rage, when the Northern man shall be called upon to bathe his fraternal sword in his own blood flowing in the veins of his Southern brother, let it be remembered that this unjust and unholy war could have been avoided, but that Mr. Lincoln and his Cabinet peremptorily refused to make any compromise with the Southern people, stolidly insisting upon construing the Constitution as they please, no matter how the Supreme Court, the proper and only tribunal erected for the decision of Constitutional questions, may expound it.

MORE REPUBLICAN ECONOMY.

The People to pay the Piper!

Those particularly honest and scrupulously economical gentlemen, the politicians of the Disunion Black Republican party, are beginning to exhibit some specimens of their speciality in saving the dear people from corrupt and burdensome legislation. After their howls of disapprobation at the conduct of Democratic officials, it was hardly to be expected that they themselves would be guilty of such profligacy as the following:

IN THE STATE SENATE, APRIL 21, 1851.

Mr. BOUND, Rep., read in place an act to pay the expenses of the reception and entertainment of the President.

Mr. BOUND moved that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the above bill.

The first and only section was read. It authorizes the State Treasurer to pay the sum of $2,115 expenses incurred.

The items of the total were called for, and given by Mr. BOUND, as follows:

Colder, horse hire	$178.00
Continental Hotel refreshments	97.50
Coverly, (Jones House)	640.00
Committee, each, $100	2,200.00
	2,115.50

Here we have the cost of the visit of Abraham Lincoln to Harrisburg, involving an expense of $2,115.50, an outlay unnecessarily and extravagantly large, entailed upon the over-burdened shoulders of the taxpayers of Pennsylvania. Mr. Lincoln spent just about twelve hours in Harrisburg, and yet his hotel bill is $640.00, and the Committee appointed by the Legislature to wait upon him are to be paid at the rate of $100 each! This is "Honest Old Abe" for you with a vengeance! When did Mr. Buchanan ever ask his fellow citizens to pay his expenses when on a visit to any of the States of the Union? Never!—He was a plain, Democratic citizen, paid his own hotel bills, and never attempted to play the lion at the expense of his fellow citizens.

THE GLORIOUS REACTION.

THE SOBER SECOND THOUGHT!

"OLD ABE" HEARS DISTANT THUNDER!

We give below a few extracts of telegraphic lightning which have recently given Old Abe and his Administration a peculiar pain in the region of the fifth rib. There are more of the same sort in the political atmosphere. If the Southern folks will give us a little more time, we will rid the North of the pestiferous party that has arrayed the two sections in an attitude of hostility. The States Rights Democracy, the Constitutional Union men of the country, are determined to uproot and exterminate every seed and off-shoot of sectional fanaticism. As witness the following brilliant and significant victories:

THE RHODE ISLAND ELECTION.

Defeat of the Republicans—Re-election of Governor Sprague—Loss of two Republican Congressmen.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 3, midnight.—The State election was held to-day, with the following result:—

The Republican ticket, headed by James Y. Smith, for Governor, is defeated.

Governor Sprague, the Democratic Union candidate, is re-elected by a large majority.—The Legislature is of the same political character.

The Democratic Union candidates for Congress, William P. Sheffield from the Eastern, and George H. Brown, from the Western Districts, are elected over the late Republican members, Messrs. Robinson and Brayton.

CONNECTICUT ELECTION.

The Democrats elect two of the four Congressmen in this State, being a clear gain. The Republicans elect their Governor by about 1500 maj., being a Republican loss from last fall of nearly 9000.

CLEVELAND MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

CLEVELAND, April 2.—The City election yesterday resulted in the choice of Edward S. Flint, Democrat, as Mayor. The entire Democratic ticket is probably elected.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

ATTICA, April 3.—At the village election, held at Rome, N. Y., yesterday, the Democrats elected all the village officers and two-thirds of the Ward officers. The majorities average 350. George Barnard is chosen President.

ST. LOUIS MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

ST. LOUIS, April 2.—In the municipal election yesterday the Anti-Republican ticket was elected by from 2,000 to 3,000 majority. The "Unconditional Party" ticket, having Mr. Howe for its candidate for Mayor, was successful in only two wards.

CLEVELAND, O., April 2.—The municipal election at Sandusky yesterday, resulted in the election of the Democratic candidate for Mayor, by 155 majority. The Democratic candidates for Treasurer and Solicitor, were elected; also two Republicans and three Democrats as Councilmen.

CINCINNATI, April 2.—Full returns of the city election yesterday show a Democratic Union average majority of 2,800.

BROOKLYN ELECTION.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., April 6th.—The Democrats have carried this city by from 4000 to 6000 majority.

The Great Reaction.

One of the most striking evidences of the change that has taken place in public sentiment at the North in regard to the continued agitation of the subject of slavery, is found in the recent action of the Philadelphia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, on a report from the Committee on the State of the Church, recommending to the General Conference to repeal the Chapter on Slavery, and declaring a division of the Conference by State lines inexpedient at this time. The report included the two following resolutions:

Resolved, That we concur in the resolutions of the East Baltimore Conference, requesting the General Conference, at its next session, to repeal the Chapter on Slavery; and instead thereof, empower each annual Conference, within whose bounds the institution exists, to make such regulations upon this subject as in their judgment may best subserve the interest of the Redeemer's Kingdom among them.

Resolved, In view of our present national difficulties and embarrassments, and the consequent disturbed condition of the public mind on the one hand, and the conflicting opinions of our churches in Delaware and Maryland on this subject, we deem it inexpedient to divide the Philadelphia Conference by the State lines at this time. But we recommend all the Quarterly Conferences of the Peninsula, during the coming year, to consider this matter, and give such expression of their working as may aid in determining the action of this body at its next annual session.

The resolution in favor of the repeal of the Slavery Chapter, was adopted by a vote of 174 yeas to 35 nays; the second resolution by a vote of 143 yeas to 31 nays; a call for the previous question on the adoption of the report as a whole was then sustained by the decisive vote of 181 yeas to 5 nays—showing the determination of the Conference not to allow the once exciting question to provoke a debate—and it was finally adopted by general assent.—Reading Gazette.

Local and Miscellaneous.

....We are informed that the nominal editor of the Inquirer, has been appointed to a second class clerkship at Washington, under Simon Cameron. We have often wondered how any man, or any half a man, could swallow the filth the aforesaid editor uttered against Cameron in 1855. We see it all now. The promise of a little office, was the salad that made the "Buzzard Feast" palatable.

....Mr. G. W. WEIDEL, the newly appointed Steward of the Poor House, has been installed, and is now in the active discharge of the duties pertaining to his office. The crowded state of our columns precluded us from making a notice of a very pleasant day spent at the Poor House on the occasion of the last monthly meeting of the Directors. Suffice it, at this late day, to say, that we found every thing in excellent order, the public property well taken care of and the paupers comfortably clothed and properly fed and attended. Messrs. Amos and Kemery were in attendance, performing their duties as Directors with great care and fidelity. The dinner prepared on the occasion, by the family of the Steward, afforded to our mind ample evidence that the Poor House will surely have an excellent housewife during the term of the present Steward. Mr. Leary, the late Steward, carries with him the good wishes of many friends, having discharged the duties of the office with correctness and fidelity.

....An election was recently held in West Providence township, to change the place of holding the election in said township. The following was the result:

For Bloody Run,	27
" Joseph Fisher's,	39
" David Sparks' School House,	52

....The difference between Black Republican Unionism and that of Democrats and Conservatives, is this: The Republicans are in favor of compelling the Southern people to stay in the Union and submit to the working of the Government under the Black Republican construction of the Constitution. On the other hand, the true Union men are in favor of making the Constitution, as expounded by the tribunal established for that purpose by the Constitution itself, the bond of Union between the North and the South. This is the whole difference. Is it hard to decide which is right?

....We understand that the Messrs. Baer, of Somerset, are making preparations to bore for oil in Hermon's Bottom, in the Western part of this county. It is said that the "surface indications" are excellent, and those skilled in oil-ology assure us that the geological formation in that region is similar to that of the great oil regions in the western part of this State.—One thing is certain, if the oleaginous fluid exists in Hermon's Bottom, those Baers are bound to scratch it out.

....The following are the appointments made by the late M. E. Conference, at Chambersburg, for this (Juniata) district:

Presiding Elder,	Rev. G. D. CHENOWITH.
Hollidaysburg,	F. B. Snyder.
Altoona,	W. L. Spottswood.
Woodbury,	J. A Melick, J. B. Mann.
Schellsburg,	N. W. Colburn, W. Evans.
Bedford Station,	Samuel Kepler.
Bedford Circuit,	C. Cleaver, J. G. Moore.
New Granada,	A. Smith, C. H. Kitchen.
Cassville,	C. Graham, Thos. Greenly.
Huntingdon,	S. L. M. Conser.
Manor Hill,	A. M. Barnitz, J. C. Clarke.
Williamsburg,	E. W. Kirby.
Birmingham,	J. A. Coleman, W. Houck.
Philipsburg,	S. Creighton, J. Olwine.
Curwensville &c.,	T. D. Gotwalt.
New Washington,	A. Bendor, D. M'Clasey,
Glen Hope,	J. S. Lee, L. D. Watson.
East Baltimore,	Rev. Samuel Barnes.

....The communication signed "American," from St. Clair, intimating that the Inquirer has "put its foot into it," in approving of the appointment of the infidel and outlaw, Carl Schurz, Minister to Spain, will appear next week. Several anonymous articles are received, but as we never publish such without knowing the author's name, they will not appear.

....We learn with profound regret the sudden death of a bright and promising young lad, the second son of Hon. E. M. Schrock, one of the members of the House of Representatives from this district. The bereaved father has our heartfelt sympathy in his loss.

....Rev. S. Kepler, the newly installed Methodist Minister at this place, preached his first sermon on Sunday last. It is highly spoken of by all who heard it.

Wanted—A Policy.

The New York Times, one of the most formidable organs of the Republican party, opens its guns upon the Lincoln Administration with deadly effect. With every disposition to furnish support, it is compelled to administer censure. An extract will serve to show the opinion entertained by many of Mr. Lincoln's party friends of the conduct of his Administration:

It is idle to conceal the fact that the Administration thus far has not met public expectation. The country feels no more assurance as to the future—knows nothing more of the probable results of the secession movement—than it did on the day Mr. Buchanan left Washington. It seems no indications of an Administrative policy adequate to the emergency—or, indeed, of any policy beyond that of listless waiting to see what may "turn up." * *

The fact is, our government has done absolutely nothing towards carrying the country through the tremendous crisis which is so rapidly and so steadily settling down upon us. It allows everything to drift—to float along without guidance or impulse of any kind.—This might do well enough, if the Southern States were pursuing the same policy. But while we are idle, they are active. While we leave everything at loose ends they make everything tight and and snug for the coming storm.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON CITY.

We make the following extracts from telegraphic despatches received by the Philadelphia Inquirer of a late date:

ANXIETY AND PREPARATION.

There is an uneasy and anxious feeling manifested by everybody who comes within immediate range of the Government, that indicates that the comparative calm existing for the last month is about being broken up by storms.—The Departments of War and the Navy are alive with the proceedings necessarily antecedent to great undertakings by sea or by land. The Cabinet preserve a profound and ominous silence, but hold frequent and long sessions, in which it is certain that the Southern complications occupy more of their time than the wranglings of office-seekers, to the great disgust of the latter.

OFF FOR THE WARS.

Some of the officers who have just returned from Texas to New York, and who expected soon to join their families here, have telegraphed that they sail to-day for unknown service.

EXTRA SESSION.

The New Yorkers are gaining ground in their demand for an extra session, as they say nothing about the tariff, but urge warlike preparations, which will require the authorization of Congress.

The President has asked the opinion of several Senators here, in writing, on the necessity for calling an extra session.

VIRGINIA APPEALS TO LINCOLN.

Senator Chandler and Colonel Segar, members of the Virginia Convention, with John Minor Botts, are here from Richmond, and are having an interview with Mr. Lincoln urging peace and deprecating activity in the War Department.

FORT PICKENS.

General Scott is of the opinion that Fort Pickens cannot stand a continuous siege if the Secessionists continue to throw up batteries, encircling it and commanding all approaches, as has been done at Charleston. If Pickens is to be maintained, a force must be landed on shore to silence the batteries.

SOUTHERN COMMISSIONERS INDIGNANT.

The Southern Commissioners now in Washington are indignant. The first intimation which they received of the warlike policy of the Administration, was given to-day.

READY FOR WAR.

The Commissioners immediately telegraphed to Jefferson Davis "to prepare for war." The answer which they received was, "We are all ready, let it come!"

APPOINTMENT OF AN ALLEGED SECESSIONIST.

Great excitement exists in consequence of the rumored appointment, by Secretary Bates, of E. C. Carrington to the office of District Attorney of the District of Columbia. He is a nephew of ex-Secretary Floyd, and reputed to be a Secessionist.

It is rumored that the Ohio delegation prefer the appointment of Mr. Gholson to the Supreme Bench.

CABINET TROUBLES.

Messengers are continually passing to and fro between the offices of the members of the Cabinet. There is trouble in the wind!

AFFAIRS begin to have a warlike aspect.—The Administration has determined to re-inforce Fort Pickens at all hazards, and troops are being concentrated at New York preparatory to a descent upon the South. The Southern Government is also preparing for the conflict, having collected an army of at least four housand men at Pensacola, which is being daily augmented, to repel any assault that may be made, or, possibly, to attack the fort in case an attempt is made to re-inforce it. Charleston was thrown into a great state of excitement on Thursday by the appearance of a schooner off the harbor, and her attempt to pass the batteries. She was fired into and turned about and disappeared. It is supposed that she contained reinforcements for Fort Sumpter.

While the Administration hesitate concerning the evacuation of Sumpter, the Charlestonians are becoming impatient, and rumors were current that an attack would be made upon it from the fortifications in case the troops were not withdrawn. The suspicion begins to prevail that the Administration have delayed the evacuation for the purpose of inciting the Southern Government to make an attack upon the fort, and thus to throw upon it the responsibility of commencing a war which the Lincoln Administration has determined upon.—Patriot and Union.

HEAL THE SICK.—Diseases of the Bowels and Stomach are always caused by large deposits of hurtful matter, left by impure blood in those important organs, and the poisonous material in this vitiated blood, acting on the system, makes it too weak to throw off this matter by the natural channels, or if any is carried off it is a very small portion. So arise diarrhœa and dysentery, colic, costiveness, bad breath, indigestion, nausea, loss of appetite, belching of wind of stomach, etc. To cure all these "the blood is the life," and must be perfectly pure and clean, then you cannot be sick. A short use of JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS will delight you. You will feel with surprise their mighty power, and be willing to say with the red men of the west, truly they are the "mighty healer." Sold by all medicine Dealers.

—MARRIED—

ESHLEMAN—LUTZ.—On the 28th of March, by the Rev. John Gluck, Mr. D. D. ESHLEMAN, of Woodberry, Bedford Co., Pa., to Miss KATE A. LUTZ, of German Valley, Huntingdon Co., Pa.

LEADER—MANSPEAKER.—On the 21st ult., by the Rev. H. Heckerman, Mr. DAVID F. LEADER, to Miss CAROLINE M. MANSPEAKER, both of Bloody Run.

NOTICE

Is hereby given, to all whom it may concern that I have purchased at Sheriff's Sale, on Thursday, the 4th of April, one bay mare, two cows, one wind-mill, fifteen acres of wheat in the ground, and ten acres of rye, all of which said property I intend to leave with Adam Earnest during my pleasure, and hereby caution all persons against interfering with the same.

MICHAEL HOLDERBAUM.

April 12, 1861.

—DIED—

SCHROCK.—At Shanksville, Somerset Co., on the 7th inst., CHARLES, son of Hon. Edward M. Schrock, aged 7 years.

Another gentle, saintly spirit hath winged its flight to that "bourn from whence no traveler returns." But a few days ago he greeted us with childish welcome; now lies his inanimate form in that narrow cell which all are doomed to occupy. He was a bright, promising boy—the pride of a fond father—but, alas! how soon are our brightest hopes crushed.—Youthful friend, rest in peace! Thy mother hath called thee to her, "in childhood to give back the spirit to its maker."

Mourn not dear friends, that from your side,
This flower fair is torn;
For brighter colors now it wears
Than here on earth are worn.

The Saviour e'en himself hath said,
"To me let children come;"
And often when we love them most
He calls the dear ones home.

There in eternal bliss they shine,
From sorrow's chain e'er riven:
Though early called from friends and home,
They live and bloom in heaven.

J. G. F.

MITTONG.—On Saturday morning, the 30th ult., in Mannington, Virginia, Mrs. LOUISA, wife of Jacob M. Mittong.

The deceased was for a number of years a consistent member of the M. E. Church, and was highly respected in the community in which she lived. Her illness was short, but of much suffering, and her death was a scene for the admiration of angels. "Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like hers." Mourn not, husband, as she has gone to reap her just reward. J. W. M.

RITCHEY.—On the 20th ult., SARAH, daughter of Michael S. Ritchey, of Snake Spring Valley, in the 8th year of her age.

HOLDERBAUM.—On the 26th ult., Mrs. RACHAEL HOLDERBAUM, of Bedford tp., aged 74 years, 10 months, and 18 days.

ANCIENT JERUSALEM.

A LARGE AND BEAUTIFUL
ISOMETRICAL PICTURE
OF JERUSALEM
AND THE SACRED PLACES
SURROUNDING THE HOLY CITY,
AS THEY APPEARED IN ANCIENT TIMES.

The above work is commended to the favorable notice of clergymen, and those having charge of Sunday-schools, Bible-classes, and public institutions.

It is about nine feet long and six feet wide, colored and varnished, and mounted on canvas with rollers.

It has been constructed from the most reliable authentic sources, and will be found an invaluable aid to those engaged in lecturing on the Holy Land, or in imparting instruction to school classes on the subject to which it refers.

It aims to give an exact idea of the city as it appeared in ancient times. It is taken as a "birds eye" or "balloon" view, the beholder being, in imagination, placed at a considerable elevation, so as to take a comprehensive view of the city and of the whole country for some distance around.

The View is accompanied with an Outline Key, in which the different localities are numbered, and and a Descriptive Manual containing all the information necessary to enable one to use the View to advantage in teaching or lecturing.

THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL TIMES

This is a Weekly Religious Paper, published at the very low price of

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

It is designed for PARENTS, TEACHERS, and all who are engaged or interested in the religious training of the young. It is also an excellent FAMILY PAPER.

A portion of the Sunday-School Times is occupied with NARRATIVES and other matter particularly interesting to young persons. Teachers will find in it much that they will like to read to their classes—interesting matter prepared to their hands, and such as they cannot find elsewhere. For the same reasons, members of Bible-classes, and the older schollars generally, will be greatly benefited by the perusal of this paper.

The Sunday-School Times has every week a report of the choicest matter, selected from the NOON PRAYER-MEETINGS, which are so interesting to all classes of Christians.

Besides a large amount of general religious intelligence, the Sunday-School Times contains all the most recent Sunday-school news. It reports all the important CONVENTIONS of Sunday-school teachers. It discusses the questions which most interest and perplex teachers and parents, respecting the various methods of religious training for the young, the means of gaining the attention and the affections of children, and especially of securing their conversion and bringing them to Christ. The subject of Mission-Schools for cities, and of Sunday-school missionary work for the interior, is thoroughly canvassed. Indeed, there is hardly a topic of practical importance to any who are interested in the subject of religious education, which is not here brought under consideration from week to week.

The conductors of this paper endeavor to remember, that the great end of all Christian effort is to bring men to Christ. They aim, accordingly, to put into every number of the paper something which shall have for its direct object the conversion of souls.

SPECIAL OFFER.

The Proprietors of the SUNDAY-SCHOOL TIMES having acquired the exclusive right of sale of the splendid work mentioned above, the MAP OF ANCIENT JERUSALEM, offer it as a special premium to those superintendents, teachers, or others, who will assist in getting new subscribers to the paper.

We offer this superb premium to any one who will send us the names of 12 new subscribers and $12 in cash.

CAUTION.

☞ In every case, before beginning to canvass, be sure to write to us and obtain the necessary documents and instructions. These will help you greatly in prosecuting the work, and will save you many mistakes. Enclose 5 cents in stamps to pay postage. Address

JUDSON'S
Mountain Herb Pills.

ABOVE, we present you with a perfect likeness of Tezuco, a chief of a tribe of the strange Aztec Nation, that once ruled Mexico. You will find a full account of him and his people in our Pamphlets and Almanacs—to be had gratis, from the Agents for these Pills.

The Inventor and Manufacturer of "Judson's Mountain Herb Pills," has spent the greater part of his life in traveling, having visited nearly every country in the world. He spent over six years among the Indians of the Rocky Mountains and of Mexico, and it was thus that the "MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS" were discovered. A very interestin account of his adventures there, you will find in our Almanac and Pamphlet.

It is an established fact, that all diseases arise from

IMPURE BLOOD!

The blood is the life! and when any foreign or unhealthy matter gets mixed with it, it is at once distributed to every organ of the body. Every nerve feels the poison, and all the vital organs quickly complain. The stomach will not digest the food perfectly. The liver ceases to secrete a sufficiency of bile. The action of the heart is weakened, and so the circulation is feeble. The lungs become clogged with the poisonous matter; hence, a cough—and all from a slight impurity at the fountain-head of life—the Blood! As if you had thrown some earth, for instance, in a pure spring, from which ran a tiny rivulet, in a few minutes the whole course of the stream becomes disturbed and discolored. As quickly does impure blood fly to every part, and leave its sting behind. All the passages become obstructed, and unless the obstruction is removed, the lamp of life soon dies out.

These pills not only purify the blood, but regenerate all the secretions of the body; they are, therefore, unrivalled as a

CURE FOR BILIOUS DISEASES,

Liver Complaint, Sick Headache, &c. This Anti-Bilious Medicine expels from the blood the hidden seeds of disease, and renders all the fluids and secretions pure and fluent, clearing and resuscitating the vital organs.

Pleasant indeed, is it to us, that we are able to place within your reach, a medicine like the "MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS," that will pass directly to the afflicted parts, through the blood and fluids of the body, and cause the sufferer to brighten with the flush of beauty and health.

Judson's Pills are the Best Remedy in existence for the following Complaints:

Bowel Complaints,	Debility,	Inward Weakness,
Coughs,	Fever and Ague,	Liver Complaints,
Colds,	Female Complaints,	Lowness of Spirits,
Chest Diseases,	Headaches,	Piles,
Costiveness,	Indigestion,	Stone and Gravel,
Dyspepsia,	Influenca,	Secondary Symptoms.
Diarrhœa,	Inflammation,
Dropsy,

GREAT FEMALE MEDICINE!

Females who value health, should never be without these Pills. They purify the blood, remove obstructions of all kinds, cleanse the skin of all pimples and blotches, and bring the rich color of health to the pale cheek.

☞ The Plants and Herbs of which these Pills are made, were discovered in a very surprising way among the Tezucans, a tribe of Aborigines in Mexico. Get the Almanac of our Agent, and you will read with delight, the very interesting account it contains of the "GREAT MEDICINE" of the Aztecs.

Observe.—The Mountain Herb Pills are put up in a Beautiful Wrapper. Each box contains 40 pills, and Retail at 25 cents per box. All genuine, have the signature of B. L. JUDSON & CO., on each box.

LAST HOURS OF WEBSTER!

JUST ISSUED A
MAGNIFICENT ENGRAVING
REPRESENTING THE
LAST HOURS OF WEBSTER.

Executed in the finest style of art, and printed on heavy plate paper 25 by 30 inches, making a most appropriate ornament for the parlor, the library, or the office.

This superb engraving will be given to each purchaser of the work entitled

THE LIFE, SPEECHES AND MEMORIALS OF
DANIEL WEBSTER,
CONTAINING HIS MOST CELEBRATED ORATIONS AND HIS LIFE AND TIMES.

BY SAMUEL M. SMUCKER, LL.D.

THIS WORK CONTAINS HIS LAST GREAT SPEECH ON THE SLAVERY COMPROMISE.

In the U. S. Senate, and the Addresses delivered on the occasion of his death by Rufus Choate, Edward Everett,
Geo. S. Hilliard, William H. Seward,
Lewis Cass, Jefferson Davis, Butler,
&c., &c., with the Funeral Obsequies at Marshfield; and all the prominent incidents of his Public and Private Life. The specimens of his massive oratory include the finest speeches.

In one large volume of 550 pages, printed on fine paper and bound in beautiful style; containing a full length steel portrait of Webster, believed to be the best ever taken of the great Statesman, as he was in the prime of manhood. Also, a great Statesman, as he was in the prime of manhood. Also,

A View of his Birthplace and Home at Marshfield. Price, $2.00; gilt, $2.50.

The engraving is one of the most beautiful and desirable ever issued. It represents Mr. Webster in his dying moments. His relatives and intimate friends, and several distinguished personages are grouped around his couch, eagerly listening to the last feeble words of the expiring statesman. They watch with intense interest his every movement. The artist represents the scene as inexpressively imposing and impressive.

The opportunity afforded to obtain this magnificent engraving without charge, will command the attention of every one. Our edition of the life of Webster has been published but a few months; without the aid of the engraving we have disposed of 10,000 copies, which is proof the work is wanted by the people.

This work will be sold only by subscription, and will be furnished to subscribers, including the Engraving, bound in handsomely embossed leather at $2.00; same style, gilt edges, $2 50 Sample copies sent by mail, post-paid, on receipt of price.

Agents wanted in every county, to whom the largest commisgion will be paid. Full particulars of agency, with a complete catalogue of my publications, will be sent on application. Address,

AMERICAN WATCH COMPANY
GOLD AND SILVER WATCHES.
OFFICE JOHN A. STODDART, NO. 411 CHESTNUT STREET, PHILADELPHIA, PENN'A.

Attention is invited to the following statements and the accompanying testimonials in favor of these

CELEBRATED AMERICAN WATCHES,

A Gold Medal was awarded the Company by the Massachusetts Mechanical Association, 1856. A Gold Medal was also awarded them by the American Institute at New York, in 1857. The Company also received the First Premium—a Gold Medal—from the Franklin Institute, Philadelphia, in 1858.

These Watches have now been in the market for nearly ten years, during which time they have been tested as to in every conceivable manner, and have proved themselves to be the most satisfactory time pieces ever offered to the public.

ACCURACY, DURABILITY AND RELIABILITY,

This result has been brought about by a strict application of mechanical science to the construction of the watch from its very inception, rendering it, when finished in all proportions, and necessarily as perfect a time keeper as it is possible to make.

MATHEMATICALLY CORRECT,

The Company have tested their Watches, in many instances, by actual daily noting, and the result of this test has been that they have exhibited a rate equal in regularity to the best marine chronometer.

N. B.—We have just introduced a elaborately finished, and thinner than any we have heretofore produced, with several improvements calculated to secure the greatest accuracy of performance, and to prevent the usual accidents and derangements to which foreign watches are liable.

NEW STYLE OF WATCH

Letter from Paul Morphy, the Celebrated Chess Player.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15, 1859.

MR. R. E. ROBBINS, Treas. Am. Watch Co.:

Dear Sir:—The American Watch, No. 9240, presented me by the New York Chess Club, proved to be a most reliable and accurate time-keeper—almost unnecessarily so for ordinary purposes. It is now nearly five months since it came into my possession, and during that period its variation from standard time has been but a trifle more than half a minute. The following is a record of its performance. It was set June 3d correctly:

June 15, fast 4 seconds.	Aug. 15, fast 18 seconds.
July 1, - 6 do	Sept. 1, - 23 do
- 15, - 10 do	- 15, - 28 do
Aug. 1, - 16 do	Oct. 1, - 32 do

I give you permission to make such use of this statement as you may think proper.

I am, with respect, yours truly,
PAUL MORPHY.

The following is from Mr. Porter, the well known Marine Chronometer and Watch Maker.

BOSTON, Sept. 28, 1859.

R. E. ROBBINS, Treas. Am. Watch Co.

Dear Sir:—I have sold during the last year a considerable number of Watches of the Waltham manufacture, and am happy to say that all of them without exception, have fulfilled my guaranty, and have given satisfaction to the purchasers.

GEORGE E. PORTER.

The following named gentlemen may be referred to in relation to these Watches.

Hon. Hannibal Hamlin, Maine, John G. Saxe, Vermont, N. P. Willis, N. Y., Hon. N. P. Banks, Massachusetts, A. L. Hamilton, Tennessee, James W. Simonton, Cal. Carlos D. Stuart, Long Island, Townsend Harris, Japan, Horace Greeley, Frank Leslie, Norman Wiard, Wis, Dr. J. Marion Sims, Charles Hammond, Phil'a., Prof. Bartlett, West Point, Dr. Ammi Brown, Boston, Lieut. Henry A. Wise, U. S. N., Col. W. J. Harden, U. S. A., S. Ireneus Prime, D. D. White Plains, Col. T. B. Thorpe.

CAUTION.

As our Watch is now extensively counterfeited by foreign manufacturers, we have to inform the public that no Watch is of our production which is unacompanied by a certificate of genuineness, bearing the number of the Watch, and signed by our Treasurer, R. E. Robbins, or by our predecessors, Appleton, Tracy & Co.

These Watches are for sale by Jewelers generally, and can be had on application to the undersigned.

DR. MOTT'S
CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE
PILLS OF IRON.

AN APERIENT AND STOMACHIC PREPARATION of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest medical authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that a preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Mismenstruation, Whites. Chlorosis, Liver Complaint Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fever Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of Iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating: and gently regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases.

In unchecked Diarrhœa, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating and apparently malignant, the effects have been equall decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate Incipent Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory, in the latter, however, more decidedly, it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt happy and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills price 50 cents per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address, on receipt of the price.

All letters, orders, etc., should be addresse to

BELLINGHAM'S CELEBRATED STIMULATING ONGUENT, FOR THE WHISKERS AND HAIR.

The subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the Citizens of the United States. that they have obtained the agency for, and are now enabled to offer to the American public, the above justly celebrated and world renowned article.

THE STIMULATING ONGUENT

Is prepared by Da. C. P. BELLINGHAM, an eminent physician of London, and is warranted to bring out a thick set of Whiskers or a Mustache, in from three to six weeks: This article is the only one of the kiad used by the French, and in London and Paris it is in universal use.

It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If applied to the scalp, it will cure baldness and cause to spring up tu place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, it will turn red or towy hair dark. and restore gray hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth and flexible. The "Onguent" is an indispensable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.

The subscribers are the only Agents for the article in the United States, to whom all orders must be addressed.

Price One Dollar a box—for sale by all Druggists and Dealers, or a box of the "Onguent" (warranted to have the desired effect) will be sent to any who desire it by mail (direct) securely packed, on receipt of price and postage, $1.18. Apply to or address

ROHRER'S PRACTICAL CALCULATOR.—

A Book of Plain Rules and Calculations for Business Operation, By Martin M. Rohrer, Practical Surveyor and Conveyancer. New Edition, Published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia.

This work contains 204 pages, and upwards of 500 Rules and Examples, entirely and thoroughly practical, such as arise every day in the common pursuits of Business. It has already passed through a number of Editions in rapid succession, and is pronounced by all classes of business men to be the handiest book of reference, pertaining to calculations, that has ever been published.

Every example in the book is worked out in full and tated in a plain manner, so that when a parallle case arises, those referring to the work will find no difficulty in readily solving it; in a word, the general arrangement of the Calculator is so simple, that any one who knows how to add, substract, multiply, or divide, can easily solve any ordinary example that arises in business, or arrive at the result of any estimate required.

The chief aim of the author has been to eschew theory and philosophy in figures, aiming only at facts and simplicity, believing that business men care little about spending time in discussing the philosophy of rules or the science of figures, deeming it sufficient for their purpose to be able at a moment, by reference, to arrive at the true result The calculator differs in this respect from all Arithmetics of the day, and kindred works—it is a key to practical business calculations—it is, in the hands of the business man, what the key to mathemrtical works is in the hands of the teacher in the school-room—it facilitates time and insures correctness.

THE WORK TREATS OF THE

Measurement of Land, of Lumber, of Brick and Brick work, of Stone and Stone Work, of Grain and Grain Bins, of Coal and Coal Bins, of Wood, of Solids, of Liquids, of Circular, of Square, or Irregular Vessels, of Cisterns and Vats, of Roofing, of Plasterers', Painters', Glaziers', Pavers', Plumbers, Paper Hangers', and Upholsters', Work. It treats of Currency and of Foreign and Domestic Exchange of the Decimal System, of Reduction and its extended application to Business, of Simple and compound Interest, and their entire application to Business transactions, with the laws and usages governing and regulating the same, together with numerous Commercial Forms—of Legal Tender, of Partial Payments on Notes, of Banking and Bank Discount of Equation of Payments and Partnership Accounts of Assessment of Taxes, of Weights and Measures, of Square and Cubic Measure, of the Square Root and its application to Business, of Surfaces, of Excavation, and of many other important practical matters not within the scope of an advertisement to mention.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering, and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR BRO. AYER: I cannot answer you what complaints I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that we ever treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses for bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe costiveness to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promotives of the natural secretion when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Epis. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, Baton Rouge, La., 5 Dec. 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

☞Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Price, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

B. F. Harry, Bedford; Barndollar & Son, Bloody Run; G. B. Amick, St. Clairsville; J. Breneman, Woodberry; Geo. Gardill, West End; J. E. Colvin, Schellsburg; and by dealers generally.

BEDFORD HOTEL— AND GENERAL STAGE OFFICE.

The subscriber respectfully begs leave to announce that he has leased the Bedford Hotel, on Pitt Street, where he would be happy to meet his old friends, and the public generally.

It is not his design to make many professions as to what he will do, but he pledges his word that his most energetic efforts will be employed to render comfortable all who give him a call. The house will be handsomely fitted up, and none but careful and attentive servants will be engaged.

Persons visiting the Bedford Springs, as well as those attending Court, and the travelling community generally, are respectfully invited to give him a call and judge for themselves.

☞Boarders taken by the week, month, or year, on favorable terms.

☞Ample and comfortable stabling is attached to this Hotel, which will always be attended by a careful hostler. Also, a safe and convenient carriage house.

ALL THE STAGES STOP AT THIS HOTEL.

JOHN HAFER,
Aug. 1, 1860. Proprietor.

WASHINGTON HOUSE, BEDFORD, PA.

MRS. S. FILLER would respectfully announce to her friends in Bedford County, and to the public generally, that she has leased, for a term of years, the large and convenient brick hotel, at the corner of Pitt and Juliana streets, Bedford, Pa., known as the "WASHINGTON HOUSE," and lately kept by MRS. COOK. This house is being thoroughly refitted and refurnished, and is now open for the reception of guests. Visitors to the "BEDFORD SPRINGS" and persons attending Court, will find this house a pleasant and comfortable temporary home.—Every attention will be paid to the comfort and accommodation of guests. The table will at all times be supplied with the best the markets afford. Charges moderate.

Extensive stabling is attached to this hotel, and a careful and competent hostler will be in attendance. Special attention will be paid to the accommodation of the farming community.
